HIGHER
CONVERSIONS

For retail & e-commerce websites, re-marketing emails have a high conversion rate. When evaluated on a conversion basis, re-marketing emails ranked as effective as on-boarding triggers; however, lifecycle and recommendation triggers continued to lead the way.

Across all types, Email triggers are 624% more effective than batch Emails on a conversion basis. This is driven by a 381% higher click rate, and a 180% higher post-click conversion rate.

POSTALYTICS

Why?

2 Big Reasons

www.postalytics.com

@postalytics

www.postalytics.com/blog

#1 – Triggered Campaigns Are Better Marketing

Segmentation

I was looking at shoes because I'm interested in buying shoes

Timing

I was just now looking at shoes, now I see an ad for shoes....

Personalization

I was looking at men's brown hiking shoes, now I see an ad for men's brown hiking shoes....

#2 - Triggered Campaigns Scale
